MISSION STATEMENT

Suffolk County is committed to providing a fully integrated One-Stop Center designed to help employers meet their workforce needs and help unemployed, underemployed and emerging workers attain the skills they need to access, and advance within the workplace. By utilizing partnerships with local community, business and government entities, we strive to offer our customers centralized access to the broadest possible range of quality career-related information and services.

The Center shall foster an environment where:

Customers are empowered to manage their careers by making informed choices

Employers receive access to the best and most current labor market information, and access to services most appropriate to their local industry needs

A continuous improvement system is utilized to ensure that employers and job seekers alike receive the highest quality services available

Keeping Suffolk County companies viable and thriving is the overall aim of the Suffolk County Department of Labor and Workforce Investment Board.

A variety of employment and training services designed to help local businesses succeed in today's competitive marketplace are available through the Employer Services Division of the Suffolk County One-Stop Employment Center.

Employer Services functions much like your company's human resource division and can help you tap into an ample supply of available, talented workers, assisting you each step of the way to meet your need for skilled personnel.

Hundreds of local businesses list their job openings with the Department each year, or come on-site to our facilities to recruit and hire our customers and take advantage of our many worker training opportunities. The result is a well-trained workforce that enhances economic growth and promotes business productivity.

Employer Services field representatives can meet with you at your convenience to describe how you can further utilize these services to hire or train the workers you need. There is never a charge for our services. Call the phone numbers listed herein to help your company take advantage of the opportunities available through Employer Services at the Suffolk County One-Stop Employment Center.
